

Parents Magazine Selects Disney Cruise Line for “Editor Pick” Award

CELEBRATION, Fla. (May 11, 2018) – Parents magazine has recognized Disney Cruise Line with an “Editor Pick” award for having the most to offer children onboard its ships.

The editor praised Disney’s extensively themed spaces designed just for kids, including Andy’s Room (with a Slinky Dog slide) from the Disney-Pixar film “Toy Story” and the Marvel Super Hero Academy where “recruits” are awed by Iron Man’s suit of armor, Captain America’s shield and Thor’s hammer. For families, the editor gave accolades to the near-endless variety of games, musical shows and festivities, including a pirate-themed deck party with fireworks, and abundant Disney character interactions.

“Disney Cruise Line delivers a family cruise vacation experience that combines the magic of Disney with the wonder of exploring different parts of the world,” said Jeff Vahle, President of Disney Cruise Line, Disney Vacation Club, Golden Oak, Adventures by Disney and Aulani, a Disney Resort & Spa. “Winning awards – especially this one from Parents magazine – is a testament to our focus on creating unforgettable cruise experiences for all ages and speaks to the teamwork and creativity of our Cast and Crew.”

Since first setting sail in 1998, Disney Cruise Line has received more than 250 distinguished awards from the travel industry. These awards have recognized all aspects of the operation from dining and entertainment, to youth activities and spa facilities.

###