

U.S. News & World Report Presents Disney Cruise Line with Two Prestigious Gold Badge Awards

CELEBRATION, Fla. (November 15, 2017) – U.S. News & World Report released its 2018 Best Cruise Lines rankings, and for the fifth consecutive year, Disney Cruise Line was named the top cruise line in two categories – Best Cruise Lines for Families and Best Cruise Lines in the Caribbean.

The U.S. News & World Report Best Cruise Lines rankings are based on a methodology of cruise ship quality, reputation among travelers, and many more factors. According to U.S. News & World Report, Disney Cruise Line is consistently praised for its “kid-friendly atmosphere, whimsical amenities and spacious staterooms that children and sentimental adults both enjoy.”

“Our goal is to make dreams come true for every person who steps aboard our ships,” said Anthony J. Connelly, president of Disney Cruise Line, Adventures by Disney, Disney Vacation Club, Golden Oak, and Disney’s Aulani. “It’s an honor to earn this recognition for the fifth consecutive year, and it speaks volumes about the dedication and attention to detail delivered by our Cast and Crew Members.”
