

NFL Superstars Join Drew Brees Passing Academy at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Disney

Marquee NFL pros Larry Fitzgerald, Darrelle Revis, Darren Sproles join Saints QB at this summer's camp; Three-day event to again feature passing camp and 7 on 7 tournament with top prep football players

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. (April 8, 2014) -This year's Drew Brees Passing Academy and 7 on 7 Tournament is getting a lot of extra firepower. NFL megastars Larry Fitzgerald, Darrelle Revis and Darren Sproles are joining the Saints' Pro Bowl QB for the three-day event at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort.

Fitzgerald (Cardinals WR), Revis (Patriots DB) and Sproles (Eagles RB) will help coach the prep football camp participants along with Brees. Fitzgerald will work with the receivers; Revis will train the defensive backs; and Sproles will guide the running backs during the event which includes one day of position training and two days of 7 on 7 action from June 26-28, 2014 at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex, where NFL pros such as Falcons WR Devin Hester, Jets WR Santonio Holmes and Steelers CB Ike Taylor train year-round under noted trainer Tom Shaw.

The Brees camp will also feature a position-by-position skills competition, 1 on 1 passing competitions and a panel discussion featuring Brees, Fitzgerald, Revis, Sproles and other NFL personnel.

The camp is open to only 24 high school football teams across the country (15-20 players per team). The camp costs $1,500 per team. Teams can register and get additional information at www.DrewBreesPassingAcademy.com.

For more information about ESPN Wide World of Sports, visit www.espnwwos.com.